Match Report

Friday 19th October

Not such a good week this week. The Persuaders caught us napping in the first set by steaming to a fantastic 19 pin lead. The excuse we could only offer was the pins etc were still cold and had not warmed up! The Second set was marginally better in as much as we managed to pull back 6 pins cutting out deficit down to a mere 13 pins. Our third set was on fire, storming ahead with a fantastic spare from Kev. This we felt could have won us the match because we managed to level the game. Sadly though, the tables were turned on us again and we lost by 5 pins. Not a huge amount, but enough to only give us a point value of 4 out of a possible 14.
